

Change in police information* notification

Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act 2000

This form is to be completed to advise Blue Card Services where an applicant/cardholder has had a change in their police information.

Paid employee/volunteer/student

Where a paid employee/volunteer/student has a change in their police information:

- they must immediately disclose to their current or prospective employer/organisation/education provider that there has been a change in their police information. The person does not need to notify them of any further details, only that a change has occurred;
- the employer/organisation/education provider must not allow that person to continue working in regulated employment unless they have lodged this form notifying of the change in police information;
- the paid employee/volunteer/student must complete Parts A and E;
- the employer/organisation/education provider must complete Part B and C.

Business operators

Where a person carrying on a regulated business has a change in their police information:

- they must complete Parts A, D and E and immediately lodge this application to provide notification of a change to their police information.

What happens next?

- Your eligibility to hold a blue card or exemption card will be reassessed.
- Where the change is relevant to your child-related employment, your organisation/employer/education provider or other entities will be notified (if applicable) that your eligibility for a blue card/exemption is being reassessed, including whether the change in police information is a charge or conviction and whether it is a serious offence.

Further information about change in police information is available from www.bluecard.qld.gov.au or by contacting Blue Card Services on 3211 6999 or 1800 113 611.
