

PLAYER TRANSFER PROCEDURES

Breach of QRL Rule 4.1.6 (or Local League By-Laws)

When a Player Clearance Request has been denied, please see options below:

If denied, due to QRL Rule 4.1.6 - Choose to either:

1. Re-register to your original Club; or
2. Seek a written exemption from this rule "Special Circumstances"

If denied, due to the RLB Player Points System - Choose to either:

1. Re-register to your original Club; or
2. Submit a player transfer to an eligible Club; or
3. Seek a written exemption from this rule "Special Circumstances"

(A Club may seek a written exemption from this Rule 4.1.6 from the relevant Region where it considers that there are Special Circumstances. The relevant Region Manager may grant such an exemption where he or she considers in his or her absolute discretion that there are circumstances that fall within the definition of Special Circumstances). Please see below.

QRL Rules - Part 1 - 2. Definitions

Special Circumstances includes the relocation of a player; irreconcilable differences between the player and the relevant Club; no suitable grade in which the player can participate in the relevant Club; and such further circumstances/matters which the relevant Region Manager considers appropriate or the QRL Board publishes by way of circular to all Region Managers from time to time.

If the option is to seek a written exemption from this rule "Special Circumstances" please see procedure below:

STEP 1.

Specific details of the special circumstances in this case should be presented to the Region Manager through the Rugby League Brisbane office, together with a non-refundable administration fee of $100.00.

Payment details below:

BSB: 064 173
Account Number: 10720285
Account Name: Rugby League Brisbane

Remittance Advice: Must be emailed to c.mcglinn@qrl.com.au which clearly identifies the Players' full name. Failure to do so will delay the transfer request until it can be identified.

Once the submission is received by the Region Manager and receipt of payment is confirmed, an application will be finalised within ten (10) working days. Please note that no player transfer will be considered until after January 31st when the appropriate competition structures and affiliation process commences for the 2019 season.

It should also be noted that each case is at the absolute discretion of the Region Manager and no further avenue of appeal is applicable in these matters.

Please send all submissions through to c.mcglinn@qrl.com.au for administration processing.
